Friends of Homeless Animals wins KSR Pet Care donation.

KSR Pet Care LLC is proud to announce the winner of their March donation in honor of Professional Pet Sitters Week (March 6-12, 2011) and to recognize excellence in quality pet care service. The McLean-based business will be donating 10% of its March profits to Friends of Homeless Animals (FOHA) end of March. KSR Pet Care customers and staff first nominated and then voted until March 20. There were five nominees and FOHA won with 35%. Pets with Disabilities came in second with 31% and K-9 Lifesavers in third with 27%. "All five nominees were worthy to win our donation. We are happy to help and from my own personal experience as a rescue volunteer and foster parent, I know how high vet bills can build up, so I am sure our money will be put to excellent and much needed use," Karen Rosenberg, owner of KSR Pet Care, says. "A lot of abandoned dogs and cats are ill and/or injured when they are found. Or, they need training rehabilitation before they are ready to enter a new home. Hopefully business goes well and we can repeat this important cause on an annual basis."

Karen Rosenberg is currently fostering Carlos, a 2-year old German Shepherd for Virginia German Shepherd Rescue (VGSR)-- www.shepherdrescue.org. Carlos was heartworm positive when he first arrived in January 2011 and his muzzle was badly injured. He beat heartworm disease and now awaits his muzzle and neuter surgery mid April. The owner of KSR Pet Care knows first-hand how expensive his medical treatment is and was able to raise awareness and the necessary funds to help the rescue pay for his treatments.
